An opportunity has arisen for an experienced officer (Major and above) to apply for a tour of duty as an instructor at the International Peacekeeping College in the city of Lusawa. As you may know, Lusawa is the capital city of Mbelia, a country that has recently emerged from 15 years of civil war. Requirements include recent experience of UN/NATO peacekeeping, previous experience as an instructor, experience of course design, ability to instruct in English and a willingness to lead adventurous training activities for course participants. The post is for two years (accompanied status). Free schooling is provided for dependents aged 5–18.
